Success of State Fair Gratifying

Ban on Gasoline Rationing Was Lifted at an Opportune Time

The Missouri 1945 State Fair, first such fair to be held in the United States since Japan surrendered, closed Sunday night with a most favorable record of attendance. The All-American Thrill Drivers show drew the week's record grandstand crowd, with 8,842 persons in the grandstand and 1,315 in the bleachers, a total of 10,157. The Sunday daily attendance amounted to a total of 18,972, larger final attendance, than has been at the fair on that day in may years.

Ernest W. Baker, secretary-manager of the fair, said today he is very happy over the results. "The ban was lifted on gasoline just at the right time," he said. "We did not have as many exhibits as we would like to have had, but what we had were good, and the people took everything in good spirits and seemed to enjoy the exposition."

The daily attendance figure for Sunday as released by Secretary Ernest W. Baker and given him by the state auditors, were: 13,232 daily paid admissions, 2,000 service men and women in uniform, 2,500 children under 10 years of age and 1,240 season tickets. The Saturday figures were 7,758 daily admissions, 1,240 season tickets, 1,000 service men and women in uniform, admitted to the fair free as guests of the State of Missouri, were estimated at 17,500. Children under 10 years of age estimated at 20,000, making a total of 167,624.

Grandstand attendance for the eight days was 59,827 and the bleachers 5,098 or a total of 64,925. Automobiles on the fair grounds during the fair totaled 25,185.

Although the exhibits were not as numerous as in pre-war years, those hurriedly taken to the Missouri exposition were exceptionally good and attracted thousands of persons. The programs which were arranged for fair visitors entertainment in front of the grandstand were all outstanding.

Racing events, proved to be good, with entries short, those horses racing were of good stock and provided fast races. E. A. Duensing, superintendent of speed and who has been in charge of this department for many years, in discussing this year's programs said he was pleased with the entries and felt racing fans were well entertained by the harness races.

Thrill Show Good

Aut Swenson, business agent for the All-American Thrill Drivers, who has been at the Missouri Fair for many years said he hardly believed it possible to "whip a fair together" in such a short notice and produce such a fine exhibition as was presented by Missouri.

The show which he represented and produced by Capt. Frank R. Winkley gave the same type of entertainment in front of the grandstand. The eleven events on the program were all filled with thrills.

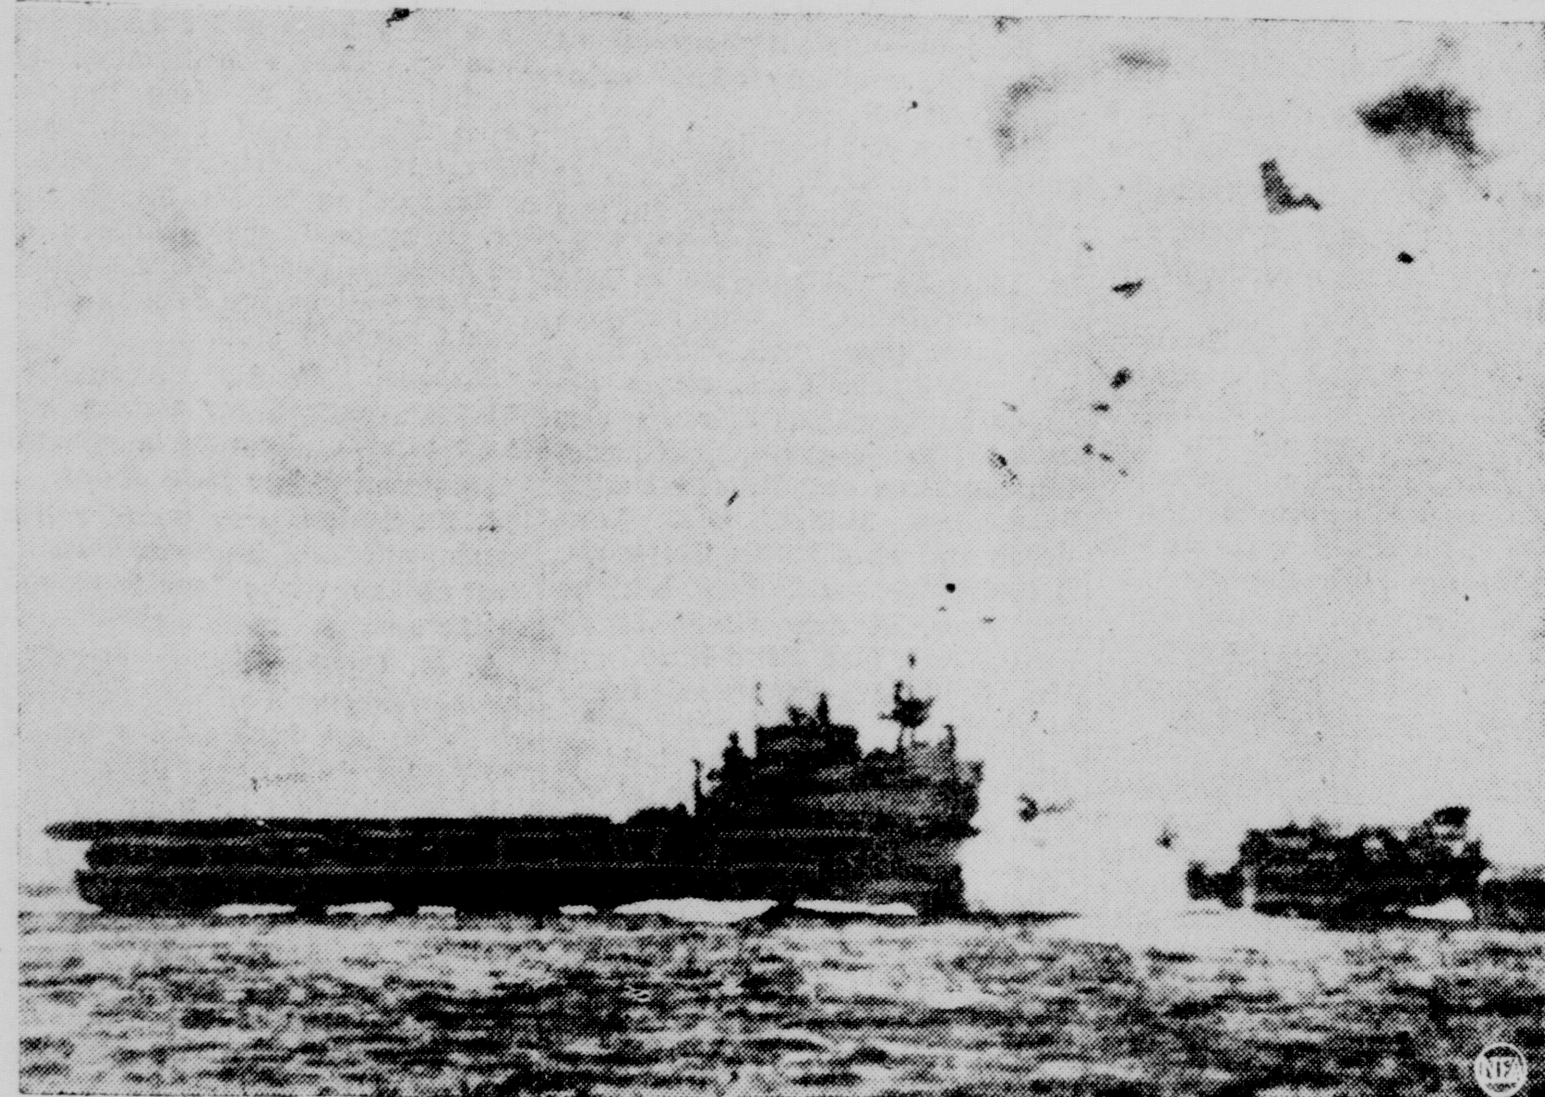

Individual dare-devil drivers appearing with the show were all former service men who have been discharged in the past few weeks and have excellent service records behind them. Each driver takes pride in providing entertainment for the fans, thus giving a wonderful show.

The Multi Ski Jumping event with two automobiles in action was given by Clint Cook and Paul Bjork. Slide for Life through a blazing pool of flaming gasoline was another event of Bjork's; Roman racing with two stock cars going over two ramps and crossing over after dropping over the end of the ramps was demonstrated by "Crash" Cook and Jimmy James; Jimmy James provided the Iron Man act by letting the wrecking car of Elmer Arnold drive over his body. Crashing through a flaming board barrier in a stock car was another event by Clint Cook. One hand driving high ski jumping over two ramps was provided by Jimmy James.

Riding a motorcycle through a board barrier flaming with gasoline soaked straw was a thrill provided by Paul Bjork.

One of the most spectacular pictures of naval warfare is this of the USS Enterprise at the moment her huge forward elevator appeared to rest atop a spire of erupting smoke and flames some 400 feet above her deck. The action occurred May 14, 1945, off Okinawa when a Jap suicide plane crashed into her deck. Fourteen men were killed and thirty-four wounded in the attack. (U. S. navy photo from NEA Telephoto)

Messages Await Prisoners of War

MANILA, Aug. 27.—(P)—Allied Headquarters announced tonight that rapid evacuation of thousands of American and Allied prisoners of war will begin "almost simultaneously" with the entry of General MacArthur's occupation forces into Japan.

The American Red Cross reported tonight that 5,000 messages from relatives in the United States were received today by special transport, addressed to prisoners of war soon to be released and brought to the Manila area.

Most of the communications include pictures of wives, mothers, and children, and will be distributed promptly. They will be the first direct word from home in months, to the prisoners.

Adventurers Climb High, Call for Help

Two teen-age youths, seeking adventure, found it Sunday on top of the old Sedalia Theatre building, but they caused a call to the fire department for the ladder truck with firemen to help them back to terra firma. It was about 4:45 o'clock in the afternoon when calls were heard from the top of the building, asking for someone to help them down.

The boys, Tommie Arnold, 11, son of Mrs. Pearl Arnold, and Richard Paxton, 12, son of Mrs. Nora Paxton had gone exploring in the old building and started climbing. Their climb ended on the roof and when they looked down it was far too high for them to start back down so help was sought.

Fire Chief John Lueck ordered the service truck to the place and also the hose truck, just in case the boys might have been playing with matches and might have started a fire.

Lueck with Firemen Potts Vaught and Joel Scott went to the roof and pulled a short ladder up to get one boy, who had hurt his foot, to a lower roof, 12 feet below. In the meantime one of the boys had gotten down, and succeeded in making his way to the ground. The firemen, however, helped the boy with the turned ankle down the ladder, then down through the "fly loft" inside the building.

The boys were taken to police headquarters and turned over to their parents, after being reprimanded by the officers.

27th Annual Meeting MFA Here Tuesday

Sessions at State Fair Grounds, F. V. Heinkel Presiding

The Missouri Farmers Association will hold its 27th annual meeting at the State Fair grounds, in this city, Tuesday. Although the organization is 29 years old, this is the 27th meeting because sessions were not held two years, due to war conditions. It will only be a one-day meeting, confined strictly to association affairs, unlike the large conventions held in pre-war years, when thousands attended, and speakers were brought from all parts of the United States.

The MFA Oil Company and the MFA Refinery Company will meet at 10:00 o'clock Tuesday morning. They will be followed by the meeting of the MFA, to be presided over by F. V. Heinkel of Robertsonville, Mo.

Auxiliaries Meet

The Women's Progressive Farm Association and the Junior Farmers Association will also meet in their annual sessions.

The MFA will hear the report of the secretary, elect officers, president, vice-president and eleven directors, four at large, the other from districts.

Millions Were At State Fair On Wednesday

"You had a mistake in attendance, Wednesday," one of the fair employees said to Secretary Ernest W. Baker, Sunday, which for a second frightened the secretary. "There were six Millions here that day," the man continued and the remark stymied Mr. Baker.

"Why that is impossible," Mr. Baker replied, "there never were that many people on the State Fair grounds. What makes you think such a thing?"

"Well I'll tell you. You see my name is Million, and the whole family was here, the wife and four children. So that made six Millions on the grounds," H. C. Million replied.

Mr. Million was in the admissions department of the fair the past week, and a son was also working on the grounds, but the other members of the family came to Sedalia to attend the fair, Wednesday, from their home in Holiday, Mo.

Allies May Encounter Difficulties in Japan

By Dewitt Mackenzie Foreign Affairs Analyst

We shall be able to breathe easier when the occupation of Japan is an accomplished fact.

We do not mean to cross our bridges before we come to them, but there is the possibility that our forces may encounter untoward incidents. Nippon is taut to the breaking point in face of the terrible punishment which comes with the first major defeat of her centuries of history.

This is true of the population as a whole, as witness Tokyo broadcasts reporting numerous suicides before the Mikado's palace. The Jap radio may be emphasizing this for propaganda purposes, but there's no reason to doubt that there have been such cases of hara-kiri, and that there will be others.

Cannot Know Reaction

More to the point, however is the fierce resentment of the militarists, and the fanatical hatred of the Kamikaze forces which have pledged to give their lives in suicide attacks against the Allies. Not even the Tokyo government can know how these radical elements or the people in general, will react to contact with the armed forces of occupation.

The Mikado's government has made it quite clear and more than once, that there is danger of clashes. There's no reason to question the sincerity of the Japanese authorities in this respect,

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at the Redemptorist Catholic church.

More Men Are Needed, Says President

Asks Congress to Continue Induction Into Armed Forces Of Men From 18-25

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(P)—President Truman urged Congress today to continue induction into the armed forces of men from 18 to 25 years, cautioning that the Far East situation still involves "many elements of danger."

At the same time he cautioned Congress against premature attempts to declare the war emergency at an end, asserting: "Tragic conditions would result if we were to allow the period of military service to expire by operation of law while a substantial portion of our forces have not yet been returned from overseas. I am confident that the Congress will take no action which would place the armed forces in such a position."

Taking issue with congressional advocates of legislation terminating the selective service program and declaring the war emergency at an end, the president gave his views in letters to chairmen Thomas (D-Utah) and May (D-Ky) of the senate and house military committees.

Asserting he could not recommend abandonment of the selective service inductions, the president declared:

Elements of Danger

"The situation in the Pacific continues to have many elements of danger, and war-torn and disorganized Europe is facing a difficult winter season with scarcities of food, fuel, and clothing."

"Our occupation forces in those areas must be held at safe levels, determined largely by General MacArthur and General Eisenhower who are on the ground and familiar with the situation. We cannot stop the certain inflow of replacements into the armed forces, without necessitating prolonged service of veteran soldiers."

The president asked legislation raising the existing ceiling of 280,000 on the number of regular army enlistments which can be accepted and the elimination of any other legal impediments to the maximum procurement of volunteers.

Enlistments Encouraged

He asked Congress to consider inducements to stimulate voluntary enlistments, pointed out that the more men who can be secured by this means, "the fewer it will be necessary to induce into or continue in the service."

He said he wished it were possible for him to recommend "that the drafting of men be stopped altogether and at once."

"But," he added, "sharing the deep feeling of our people that those veterans who have given long and arduous service must be returned to their homes with all possible speed and with a certainty that world conditions will require us during the transition period to settled peace to maintain a real measure of our military strength, I cannot so recommend."

Allied Warships Drop Anchor Within 25 Miles Of Tokyo; 30-Year Russia-China Treaty

Soviets Will Give Military Supplies, Moral Support to Chiang Kai-shek

CHUNGKING, Aug. 27.—(P)—Russia and China were bound today in a 30-year friendship treaty which is designed to block for that period any possible Japanese aggression in Asia and which apparently paves the way for a peaceful settlement of Chungking-Chinese Communist differences.

The pact, terms of which were announced simultaneously by the Chinese and Russian governments last night, provides that Russia will give military supplies and moral support to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government to the exclusion of the northern China Communist regime and calls for mutual aid in the event of any Japanese attack.

The agreement was signed formally in Moscow on Aug. 14 after negotiations conducted by Chinese prime minister T. V. Soong and Soviet foreign affairs commissar V. M. Molotov. Premier Stalin witnessed the signing.

The treaty also assured the return of Manchuria to the Chinese, with Russia promising to complete withdrawal of her occupation troops—which wrested this country from the Japanese—within the next three months.

The B-29 pilot was held in connection with the shooting on August 3 of Pfc. James C. Rockefeller, Milwaukee, at White Lakes Night Club three miles south of Topeka.

Victorious Fleet Clearly Visible To Thousands Of Japanese on Shore

MANILA, Aug. 27.—(P)—Designating the Eighth army of Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger to occupy the Tokyo area, General MacArthur today announced there will be additional landings at Yokohama, Tokyo's port, and at Tateyama, outside Tokyo bay on the east side of its entrance.

Eichelberger, MacArthur said, will accompany the supreme Allied commander "when he arrives Aug. 30" in Japan.

By Al Dopking
WITH ADMIRAL HALSEY IN SAGAMI BAY, JAPAN, Aug. 27.—(P)—Led by Admiral Halsey's flagship, the Battleship Missouri, and impressive spearhead of Third Fleet warships triumphantly entered Japan's Sagami Bay today and dropped anchor within 25 miles of Tokyo.

Twelve hundred carrier planes roared overhead as great American and British battleships anchored two miles offshore under the shadow of towering Fujiyama at 1:30 p. m. (11 p. m. Central War Time).

Minesweepers immediately began clearing a path to the Yokosuka naval base, 15 miles away by water and eight miles by land across Miura peninsula from Katase town where the warships lay at rest.

The battleship Iowa came to a stop directly behind the Missouri. Off to the left was the British battleship Duke of York, Adm. Sir Bruce Fraser's flagship which sank the German battleship Scharnhorst in 1943.

The victorious fleet was clearly visible to thousands of Japanese along the shore between Katase and Chigasaki.

American and British seamen their faces and shirts moist with perspiration, lined the decks for their first good look at the clearly visible Japanese coastline.

(NOTE—While Drew Pearson is on vacation Sgt. Max Novack, who writes "What's Your Problem" for Yank, the army weekly contributes a guest column on the returning soldier.)

Associate Editor of Yank
NEW YORK, Aug. 27— Ever since the first GI donned khaki for what was then supposed to be a year of military training, experts have been telling anyone who would listen what the returning veteran will want. Some of the pundits, have shown an acute understanding of the civilian-turned-soldier. Others have completely missed the boat.

To the man in uniform most of the arguments have sounded like so much hogwash and wishful thinking. The theory that the youngster who left prep school to carry a gun against the forces of Fascism would remain sweetly unsophisticated and immature after having seen something of the rest of the world and the evils of dictatorship has been a special gripe of the man in the foxhole. The belief that all that the GI could possibly want would be found in a piece of homemade blueberry pie a la mode is a constant source of irritation to men in uniform.

The chief thing that the man in uniform wants is to return to civilian ways of life. No one who has not had to forego the right of individual action for from two to four years can possibly understand the importance of being able to make his own decisions. Only the man or woman who has to take orders, some of them without any apparent reason, for long periods of time could possibly hope to appreciate the determination of the veteran-to-be not to have others do his thinking for him. That is why so many GIs are incensed at those who attempt to speak for the man in uniform and who try so hard to set the veteran up as a man apart from all other mortals.

The GI doesn't want to be put in a special category when he gets out of uniform. While he wants a job for himself he is also intelligent enough to realize that there must be jobs for others or his own job won't last. Above all he does not want an economy of special privilege for those who have been in service.

No Cash Handout
Some GIs are carried away by the prospect of a cash bonus. While congress has not as yet passed any bonus legislation, numerous bonus bills have been introduced in Capitol Hill and the leading members of both houses have spoken in favor of a bonus. Bonus legislation is therefore a definite possibility. Not all GIs however, favor a bonus. Some of them realize that bonuses are just cash handouts and do not guarantee or cannot replace the security of jobs.

These GIs would prefer job planning to bonus legislation. They are well aware of the pressure that will be exerted in favor of a bonus and the easy way out that a bonus represents. They remember all too well what happened to veterans of other wars who settled for forty-acres-and-a mule or a cash handout. They do

THERE is another aspect to Shinto which explains Japanese treachery and cruelty. For Shinto, the "Way of the Gods," has only one moral imperative, and that is proclaimed by its name; it is the duty to follow the "way of the gods." But the gods whose "ways" are to be followed were conceived in a primitive jungle age, and therefore display all the characteristics of the jungle age. They are murderous, cruel, tricky, treacherous, dirty, and incidentally obscene.

Let other influences like Buddhism or Western civilization should have softened the Japanese fiber, the Shinto statesmen, like Hitler in Germany, have carried through a process which one Japanese professor so aptly describes as "re-barbarization." It, too, was accomplished by a training which deliberately educates the nation's youth in cruelty, brutality, and murder, and encourages the practice of them to make it hard—much as primitive savages educate their youth at the torture stake. This training finds its climax on the battle fields, where Japanese soldiers are rewarded for victory by permission and encouragement to indulge in demonic outbursts of rapine, torture, and murder as a means of stimulating primitive blood lust and the desire to kill.

The course of the Pacific war has demonstrated that neither his savagery nor his training have been able to make the Japanese soldier a match for the Allied fighting men, whose faith passes his understanding. But it is well to remember that the tortures and atrocities inflicted by the Japanese on their victims are no excesses of individuals, but the planned results of a system deliberately created to promote the aggressive designs of a savage theocratic state of which the Japanese Emperor is God, ruler and high priest, who gives his "Imperial Sanction" to it all.

From the Diary of a Japanese soldier killed at Salamaua, New Guinea, entry for March 29, 1943:
WE all assembled at headquarters where one of the crew of a Douglas shot down by anti-aircraft March 18 was brought under guard.

Tai Commander (Sib-Lieutenant First Class) Komai told us it had been decided to execute him and he was to be accorded a Samurai's death.

We were assembled to witness the execution. The prisoner was given a drink of water outside the guard house. The chief surgeon, Lieutenant Komai and a platoon commander bearing a sword came from the officers' mess.

The time has come. The prisoner was totters forward with his arms tied. His hair is cut close. not want that to happen again. In the past, very little planning has been done for the veterans of America's other wars. When the veterans of the Spanish-American or World War I came home they found a nation entirely unprepared for their return. The veteran of World War I was given $60 in cash, a pat on the back and 18 years later he was paid off via the bonus.

The veteran of this war wants to be sure that some plans are made which will guarantee him against unemployment and the necessity of ever having to carry a gun again. The action of congress in approving Dumbarton Oaks and the United Nations security council has given the GI a feeling that at last the first steps have been taken towards doing away with future wars. Now, he is waiting to see what will be done about insuring jobs in a postwar economy.

Revamping GI Bill
The initial steps taken by congress to provide for the veteran via the GI bill of rights and other legislation have met with approval so far the men in service are concerned. This is not to imply that all GIs are entirely satisfied with the law as it now stands. They are not. But, they are aware of the fact that legislation is already in the works to improve the law on the basis of actual experience. This tends to reassure them.

However, many GIs realize that merely providing free schooling, government guaranteed loans and unemployment protection does not mean that all their problems will be solved by the GI Bill of Rights. They also want some assurance

Jap With Samurai Sword About to Behead Allied Flyer

I feel he suspects what is afoot, but he is more composed than I thought he would be. Without more ado he is put on a truck and taken to the place of execution.

The prisoner sits beside the chief surgeon and about ten guards accompany him. The noise of the engine echoes along the road in the hush of twilight. The sun has set and columns of clouds rise before us.

I glance at the prisoner and he seems prepared. He gazes at the grass, now at the mountains and sea.

At the execution ground Lieutenant Komai faces the prisoner and said: "You are to die. I am going to kill you with this Japanese sword according to the Samurai code."

The commander's face is stern. Now the time has come. The prisoner is made to sit on the edge of a water-filled bomb crater. The precaution is taken to surround him with guards.

When I put myself in his place the hate engendered by this daily bombing yields to ordinary human feelings.

The Tai commander draws his favorite sword, the famous "Osamune." The sight of the glittering blade sends cold shivers down the spine. First he touches prisoner's neck lightly with sword.

Then he raises it overhead. His arm muscles bulge. Prisoner closes his eyes for a second and at once the sword sweeps down.

Swish—it sounds at first like noise of cutting, but is actually made by blood spurting from arteries as the body falls forward. Everybody steps forward as head rolls on the ground.

The dark blood gushes from trunk. All is over. There lies the head like a white doll.

I realize that the emotions I felt just now was not personal pity but manifestation of magnanimity that becomes a chivalrous Samurai.

A superior seaman from the medical unit received the sword from the surgeon. He rolls the body on back.
"Here's something for the other day—take that," he says, and with one sweep lays open the abdomen.
"These thick-headed white — are thick-bellied too," he remarks. There's not a drop of blood left in man's body. The seaman gives him a kick, then buries it.

The wind blows mournfully and the scene prints itself on my mind. Darkness descends.
In front of headquarters we got off truck. If ever I get back alive this will make good story to tell. That's why I write it down.

The prisoner killed today was airforce "tai" (captain or flight lieutenant) from Moresby. He young man aged 23, an instructor in Army transport command at Moresby.

Wall street has it that the Illinois Central has gathered in the Missouri, Kansas and Texas system, says the San Antonio Express. help speed his "first call home"

Almost every one of the thousands of servicemen returning from Europe wants to call home... first of all.

These calls are important... mighty important. We know you want the returning veterans to get good long distance service as much as we do.

So won't you keep two things in mind? First, please make none but necessary calls in the evening. And second, try to comply when Long Distance says, "Please limit your call to five minutes."

That will help his "first call home" go through more quickly.

DEEP PLOWING OR SUBSURFACE TILLAGE

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

The final answer to the current question of deep plowing or subsurface tillage is being weighed in the balance of practical experiments.

Regardless of what the findings of agricultural experiment stations and everyday farmers may be, one thing is certain, the tractor used to pull the plow or subsurface tillage implement will perform better, last longer and require less maintenance because it is equipped with Timken Bearings.

The Minneapolis-Moline Universal "U" is fortified at all of the important positions with no less than 20 Timken Bearings. Farmers want Timken equipped tractors because through years of favorable experience they have learned to rely on Timken Bearing equipped products.

Silver Star To Sgt. G. Schilb

Sgt. Granville Schilb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schilb of Ottumwa, with the Third Army of Occupation in Murnbeig, Germany, was inducted into the service November 11, 1942, has been overseas two years and is holder of the Purple Heart, Silver Star, Infantry badge, Good Conduct medal and ETO ribbon with three battle stars.

Sgt. Schilb

His Silver Star citation follows:

"Granville L. Schilb, 37394476, Sergeant Company F, 26th Infantry. For gallantry in action in the vicinity of Hollerath, Germany, 1 February 1945. When assault elements were halted by an intense enemy artillery, mortar, and machine-gun barrage, Sergeant Schilb fearlessly accompanied a comrade across perilous terrain to an exposed vantage point. He then skillfully directed fire upon the foe and compelled a hostile group to surrender. Sergeant Schilb's gallant actions reflect great credit upon the Army of the United States. Residence at enlistment: Ottumwa, Missouri."

The sergeant is pictured as he appeared while a patient in the convalescent hospital in England, after being wounded last March by a machine gun bullet at Remagen bridgehead.

FSA Service Has Its Tenth Anniversary

Loaned Money and Had Supervision At Same Time

During 1945 the Farm Security Administration celebrates its tenth anniversary of service to rural families. The program was initiated in 1935 as the Resettlement Administration to aid farmers who had suffered losses due to drought and depression. The Farm Security plan was not to give money but to loan it and give supervision at the same time. This began by helping the farmer make wise purchases of livestock and machinery, and continued until his loan was repaid. Each farmer had different problems with different solutions, and the FSA staff helped him to solve them. He learned that good livestock, well cared for, was a profitable investment, that a good garden and home produced food paid off in lower living cost and healthy children, and that land well cared for and properly used raised feed of high quality in large amounts.

Loaned $336,642

In Pettis county, Farm Security has loaned $336,642 to 563 families for livestock, machinery and farm operating expenses. Of this amount, some of which is not yet due, $275,743 has been repaid. Families who repaid their loans were able to continue 'on their own' and may have ever purchased their own homes since that time. Others are buying farms under the FSA Farm Ownership plan. These loans are for the purchase of family sized farms. The purchase price, plus funds for improvements if necessary, is loaned on a forty-year repayment plan. Payments are variable; that is, the borrower repays larger amounts when times are good, and not as much when there is less income available for repayment.

In Pettis county fifty families have borrowed nearly $361,000, of which $38,544 has been repaid. This program has operated in Pettis county for four years.

Qualifications

Oscar H. DeWolf is the county FSA supervisor in Pettis county. He is assisted by G. Glenn Freeman and Virginia Lee Slusher. Miss Slusher also works with families in Saline county. To qualify for a Farm Security loan, an applicant must be unable to obtain adequate credit from any other source and must have a desire to help himself. During the coming year money is available at five per cent interest for livestock and machinery. Most RR loans are set up to be repaid by annual repayments during the coming five years.

After ten years of service Farm Security is better able than ever before to help low income farmers help themselves. Individuals who are interested can make application at the Farm Security office, 410 1/2 South Ohio avenue.

To Undergo Operation

Elwood Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simon, 704 Wilkerson, is at Furman Desloge hospital, St. Louis, where this week he is to undergo an operation.

Visited in Springfield

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Payne, of Kansas City and sister, Lucille, of Ottumwa, spent several days with Mrs. Payne's two sisters, Mary Jane and Beth Holland, of Springfield.

SOCIETY Merchants Win From Tweedies Sunday 19-5

Before an altar banked with baskets of white gladioli, on either side of which were tall candelabra, each bearing seven white taper candles, Miss Leola Bradley of Sedalia, daughter of Mrs. Zella Bradley of Clinton, Mo., became the bride of Corporal Dante Bassi, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Bassi, of Bronx, N. Y., at 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Fifth Street Methodist church. Rev. H. U. Campbell, pastor of the church, read the wedding service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Charles W. Bradley of Clinton, wore a dress of white satin and net, with long train and long sleeves which came to a point over her hands. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls and her only ornament was a string of pearls about the neck. She carried a bride's bouquet of white gladioli.

Mrs. Glenn L. King, matron of honor wore a floor length dress of lace and chiffon with a short veil, and carried an arm bouquet of orchid colored gladioli.

Miss Lorraine Frazer and Miss Elizabeth Russell, both in floor length dresses of pink net, were bridesmaids. Their flowers were bridal nosegays of pastel shades.

T/Sgt. John M. Wagner served Corporal Bassi as best man. Ushers were Corporal Walter D. Folger and Private John M. McDonald.

The candles were lighted by Miss Dorothy Eirls, who wore pink taffeta and Miss Irene Zimmermann, in blue taffeta, both wearing corsages of red roses.

Miss Dorothy Maxwell sang, preceding the service, "Always" and "I Love You Truly." Her floor length dress was blue and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Mae Moser, accompanist for Miss Maxwell, played before and during the ceremony. As the bride party entered she played the "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and as a processional the Mendelssohn Wedding March.

Mrs. Bradley, the bride's mother, was attired in navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of tuberoses.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the basement of the church. The wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and served to about seventy-five guests by Miss Dorothy Church, Mrs. Kathryn Guyman, Miss Marie Wenig, Miss Dorothy Linden and Miss Beverly Ann Linden.

Miss Bradley, now Mrs. Bassi, was born and reared in Clinton, Mo., receiving her education there. She has been residing in Sedalia for the past three years and for a year has been employed at the Producers Produce company here. Corporal Bassi was born and reared in Bronx, N. Y., where he received his education. He has been in service three years and is now stationed at the Sedalia Army Air Field.

The young couple left immediately for New York on a wedding trip. The bride's going-away costume was a dress of gold colored flannel with British tan accessories.

Miss Virginia Rose Moore, of 815 West Third street, had as house guests last week-end Misses Carney and Doris Jean Siegfried, Roberta Eberling, of Clinton, and Miss Virginia Lee Weir, of Wellington, Mo. They are sorority sisters attending the C. M. S. T. C., at Warrensburg, and while here enjoyed the fair.

Walter Gibson Is Promoted

Sept. Drive of Major Baseball Best Since 1924

Seven Leading Contenders in a Neck And Neck Struggle

By Joe Reichler Associated Press Sports Writer

The stretch September drive of the seven leading contenders for the two big league pennants promises to furnish one of the most exciting races in baseball history.

Not since 1924, when the New York Giants and Washington Senators copped the flags on the eve of the season's close has there been such tight neck and neck struggles in both majors simultaneously.

The Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals are racing down the wire almost side by side in the National league while five teams are almost within arms' reach of each other in the American.

The double defeat of the American league leading Detroit Tigers at the hands of the Bob Feller-rejuvenated Cleveland Indians yesterday, 3-1 and 5-4, not only prevented the Bengals from gaining ground on the second place Senators, who also lost two games, but enabled the Tribe to move into fifth place, only 6 1/2 games from the top.

The Capitol City outfit remained 1 1/2 games behind Detroit by bowing twice to the aroused New York Yankees, 3-2 and 7-1. The fourth place Yankees now are only six games behind.

St. Louis' third place Browns demonstrated they were still in the thick of the scramble in quest of their second straight championship, by ripping the Chicago White Sox twice, 3-2 in 10 innings and 4-1, to reduce the Seawellmen's gap to 4 1/2 games.

The national loop saw the Cards whittle the Cubs' first place lead to 2 1/2 games when the Red Birds treed the Bruins for the third straight time, 5-1.

A standing room only Chicago crowd of 42,998 groaned as Charley (Red) Barrett hurled a five-hitter to notch his 19th triumph and hand the Cubs their fifth straight defeat. The Birds rapped Paul Derringer, Claude Passeau and Hank Wyse for 10 blows including a triple by Johnny Hopp and a double by Ken O'Dea.

Cleveland made it three in a row over Detroit as Allie Reynolds registered his 14th mound triumph in the opener and Steve Gromek his 16th in the nightcap.

A crowd of 52,797 saw the Yankees make it four straight in two days over the Nats, as veteran Charley Ruffing won his fifth since his army discharge in the opener and Rookie Al Gettel racked up his eighth in the nightcap.

Gene Moore celebrated his 36th birthday by hitting an inside the park homer in the tenth to win the opener for the Browns from the White Sox and provide the ninth victory for Bob Muncie. Nels Potter gained his fifth straight and his 12th win in the nightcap, holding the Sox to six hits.

Dave (Boo) Ferriss joined Hal Newhouser of the Tigers as the majors only 20-game winners when he defeated Russ Christopher and the Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 in 10 innings of the first game to pave the way for a double header victory for Boston. The second score also was 4-3. Rookie third baseman Byron (Ty) La Forest homered in each contest to provide the margin of victories.

The Giants finally beat Brooklyn, 6-2, after the Dodgers had won seven straight from the Ottomans. A crowd of 18,679, which swelled the paid attendance for the Dodgers home games to 1,000,066, witnessed the Giants' Jack Brewer hurl a six hitter.

Hugh Mulcahy's first start since his release after four years in the army, was unsuccessful as the Boston Braves beat his Phillies 6-5 in the opener with the aid of Tommy Holmes' 26th homer. The Phils won the second 4-2, with Jimmy Russell starring at bat with a three-run homer and a run-scoring single in successive times at the plate. Pittsburgh won a pair from Cincinnati, 10-7 and 2-1.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(P)—Wanted, more sports heroes—and, in some cases, better ones. That's the demand voiced by Harry Berz, secretary of the Chicago Sports Association, who is here for tomorrow's all American boys' baseball game. Berz handles a program which, as he describes it, might be a model for all "kid" recreation programs. And, in fact, he offers to provide the dope for any city that wants to organize a similar setup on the theory that "we've made the mistakes, you take advantage of them." But behind it all, where Harry is concerned, is one big idea.

"Why not build up more heroes?" asks Berz, who apparently never heard any moans about "glorifying muscle men." "There aren't any bad kids," he insists. "Give them good examples to follow and they're all right. So why not build up more heroes, glorify the kid who does something, instead of giving the headlines to the Dillingers?" The plans works the other way, too. When the athletes find they are being put up as examples to the younger generation, they try to act more like examples than just athletic has-beens.

Here's How

The Chicago Sports Association, a civic project, began with football and has spread to other sports. The pattern is the same, Berz explains, and it can be followed anywhere, with whatever teachers are available and in whatever sports are the most popular. The leaders set out to teach kids 10 to 15 years old how to play. After trying high school coaches, they went to the professional Bears and Cardinals and now the kids "get better coaching than they could in college." Besides the active pros, they have such fellows as Red Grange and Duke Slater leading them. The schools run for eight weeks, then the best 15 kids in each are picked for a "varsity" which plays a regular schedule besides putting on exhibitions between the halves of pro games. Charley Bidwill, the Cards' boss, became so enthusiastic when he was first approached that he outfits all six teams. As for the kids, 2,000 of them turned out for the first year's schools, 3,000 last year and as for the third season that's about to start—well, nobody knows what to expect. The association runs 40 basketball schools along the same lines. It has 90 former major, minor and sandlot players teaching baseball and conducts boxing, ice skating, skiing, soccer and wrestling classes.

It's a Gyp

An incident that makes Berz drop his seriousness for a hearty chuckle concerns one kid team that was outfitted on a Saturday and scheduled to play between the halves of a Bears-Detroit Lions game the next afternoon. One youngster sat on the bench watching the massive pros slug it out for a while. Finally he slid nervously toward the end: "Look, coach," he whispered. "They're using all our plays."
